A leader in providing tax, corporate, and estate planning services.

Experience

- Advised clients on a variety of business transfers ranging from $3 million to $50 million.
- Planned multi-generational estate transfers from $5 million to over $100 million.
- Developed governance structure and succession plans for multi-generational owners of businesses.
- Represented clients before the Internal Revenue Service, including in civil tax fraud investigations.
- Represented physicians on various agreements with hospitals.

Summary

Dan uses his four decades of experience and unique background in accounting and tax to produce the best possible results for his clients. As a former IRS agent with a bachelor's degree in accounting and an LL. M. in taxation, his knowledge of finance and tax law allow him to provide effective counsel in even the most complex situations.

He often addresses privately held companies, and those in need of tax planning, including mergers and acquisitions and business succession planning, as well as those needing help with tax controversies involving the IRS. From representing clients in civil tax fraud cases to developing estate and succession plans, Dan focuses on the human concerns as well as the legal technicalities.
