Strategic thinker with an emphasis on real estate law.

Experience

Shannon is a strategic thinker who focuses her practice on small businesses and middle market companies with an emphasis on real estate law, corporate transactions, and estate planning.

She assists clients with private offerings of securities, mergers and acquisitions, financing, and other business-related items. Her expertise in real estate law makes her uniquely qualified to handle all aspects of real estate transactions, including acquisition, financing, leasing, and sale.

Her work with high net worth clients leaves her well-positioned to seek out effective ways to mitigate risk for her clients whether they are seeking to close a business or real estate transaction or create estate and succession plans for the future.
