

Stephen P. Horn

Attorney

Email: shorn@swansonbernard.com

Phone: (816) 410-4642

Focus on issues of human rights, equal employment opportunity, and discrimination.

Summary

Stephen has been with the firm for his entire legal career which began in 1987. No matter the case, he works to form real, meaningful connections with his clients and takes the time to understand their individual, personalized needs. Stephen specializes in issues of human rights, equal employment opportunity, and discrimination. His responsibilities have also included assisting clients in the formation and review of employment handbooks and providing guidance to employers on a wide range of issues including employee discipline and termination, minimum wage, overtime pay, child labor, and drug testing.

He has represented individuals and entities in state and federal courts on a wide range of issues including personal injury, products liability, premises liability, insurance defense and coverage, workplace violence, security services, construction defects, contract disputes, trade secrets, non-competition agreements, and lender liability.

Practice Areas

Construction Services
Employment, Labor, Benefits and Executive Compensation
Insurance and Workers' Compensation
Litigation and Trial Advocacy

Professional Affiliations

The Missouri Bar
The Kansas City Metropolitan Bar Association

Honors and Awards

Honored by the Missouri Lawyers Weekly for winning the largest defense verdict judgment in the state of Missouri in 2013
Pro Bono Award, The Missouri Bar, 1997

Admissions

Missouri
Kansas
U.S. District Courts of Western Missouri
U.S. District Courts of Eastern Missouri
U.S. District Court of Kansas
U.S. Court of Appeals – 8th Circuit
Missouri Supreme Court

Education

J.D., University of Missouri – Columbia, 1987
B.A., University of Missouri – Columbia, 1984