Experience creating successful outcomes.

Experience

- Multimillion-dollar federal tax refund judgments from United States District Court, affirmed by the Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals
- Substantial reductions or eliminations of multimillion dollar proposed income, gift and estate tax assessments through IRS Examination and IRS Office of Appeals
- Multiple acquisitions, sales, and mergers of businesses and real estate ranging in value between $3 million and $50 million
- Structured multi-generational succession, estate and governance plans for family businesses

Summary

Extensive experience in business law, tax law, tax planning, tax controversy, entity formation, maintenance and disposition, and real estate positions Vince well to advise closely held entities, businesses, and executives on an array of legal matters and to consider all relevant issues. Further, he has structured complex mergers and other business combinations, and represented individual and corporate taxpayers in IRS appeals and tax controversies in United States Tax Court, United States District Court, and the federal Court of Appeals.

His experience also includes negotiations, contract and other document preparation, and the merger and dissolution of various entities, as well as acquisitions and dispositions of stock, real estate and other assets, including tax deferred exchanges of real estate assets, and commercial real estate leasing. This professional background and knowledge allows Vince to anticipate and manage challenges, allowing for successful resolutions and outcomes.
